1. Inquiry:

Does the submitted Staffing Estimate table need to strictly follow the column headings as depicted in Subsection B3 (page 22 of 40), or can we add columns to account for Phase B, C, and D submissions?

Response:

The Staffing Estimate table should be followed, Phase B, C, and D submissions are accounted for under the column headings provided as depicted in Subsection B3. However, a firm may modify the column headings as depicted in Subsection B3 to provide additional columns if needed.

2. Inquiry:

Under the Detailed Scope of Work on Page 16, it states "Each survey/assessment team leader shall be a licensed professional engineer." Is it ok if the survey team leader is a registered Professional Land Surveyor (PLS), or do they need to be a licensed Professional Engineer (PE)?

Response:

The field assessment team leader shall be a licensed Professional Engineer (PE) as stated on page 16 of the RFEOI.
